DEDICATION

IT IS in warm friendship and deep admiration that we, the editors of the BRIER PATCH, dedicate the 1924 volume to CAPT. R. K. KILLINGER, with sincere appreciation of his valuable aid to the annual staff, his excellent instruction in our classes and, greatest of all, his unreserved and highly valued friendship

In Memoriam

---

In loving memory of our beloved classmate
K. Christopher Crutcher
who died February 2, 1924
at Greenbrier

His life among us was ever an example of a true Christian and pure gentleman.
He leaves an empty space in our hearts, but we know he fills a much greater one across the Great Divide

FOREWORD

---

WE, THE EDITORS of the 1924 BRIER PATCH, present herewith this book which, with its portrayal of school life, its joys and sorrows, its trials and triumphs, will be, we hope, in keeping with the ideals of Greenbrier. ¶ We started upon our labor with exalted ideas and expectations, but now, at the finish, we realize the greatness of our undertaking. If we have pleased everyone we are indeed fortunate, but realizing that such an attainment is impossible, we shall feel content with this production of our hands and minds, if it succeeds in conveying something of the spirit of Greenbrier and in bringing back the memories of the days spent within these halls. The measure of success which we have attained in the accomplishment of this task is as the pages following will indicate

Thos L. Porterfield

DAVIS E. MARSHALL

Paducah, Kentucky

1920-21, Private Co. B—1921-22, Sergeant Co. C; President Non-Commissioned Officers' Club—1922-23, Captain Co. C; Secretary Lacy Literary Society; President Junior Class; President Commissioned Officers' Club; President Kentucky Club; BRIER PATCH Staff; Student Council; Officers' Medal; Varsity Football; Varsity Track; Varsity Baseball; "G" Club—1923-24, Cadet Major; Vice-President Student Council; President Senior Class; Commissioned Officers' Club; President Lacy Literary Society; President Kentucky Club; BRIER PATCH Staff; Varsity Football; Varsity Baseball; Varsity Track; "G" Club; Reformation Committee.

"Davis" hails from that blue grass state noted for its famous statesmen, fair women, fast horses and old Rock and Rye and certainly Kentucky has a proud son in the class of '24, who has done much to enhance the glory of her fair name. Marshall has a thorough knowledge for military, and we know he will have a niche for himself in the Naval Academy's hall of fame worthy of the splendid name he has made for himself at Greenbrier. The Track and Foot-ball squad was much strengthened by work of "Davis," upon the cinder track and gridiron. Women do not interfere with Marshall's school-life and duties, yet he finds opportunity to spend a great deal of time in a little brick house of which we know. Although we all envy his luck and admire his taste among the fair ones, we can't but also envy her the joy and pleasure of his presence.

THOMAS L. PORTERFIELD

Glade Spring, Virginia

1919-'20, Private Co. A—1920-'21, Corporal Co. A; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club—1921-'22, Sergeant Co. A; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Football Squad;—1922-'23, First Lieutenant Co. B; Football Squad; Commissioned Officers' Club; Marshall Lacy Literary Society; Student Council; Dramatic Club; Track Squad; President Virginia Club; Vice-President Junior Class; BRIER PATCH Staff—1923-'24, Captain Co. B; Marshall Lacy Literary Society; Treasurer Virginia Club; Student Council; BRIER PATCH Staff; Cheer Leader; Football Squad; Track Squad; Vice-President Senior Class; Secretary Commissioned Officers' Club; Treasurer K. T. C.

"Papa" leaves us this year and with him will go the respect and admiration of all with whom he has come in contact during his career as a Kaydet. Porterfield has entered into almost every branch of school life with a zeal and determination to win, in most cases coming out on top, and a better winner was never known at Greenbrier. Altho small, Porterfield has a good many distinctions in athletics to his credit. Speedy and full of fight, he has done well in both football and track. "Papa" stands well as a student and is one of Dan Cupid's favored few. Many are his conquests in the field d'amour and "Os's" friends among the fairer sex are innumerable. Good luck "Pop," where ever fate may decide to place you, whether among the fabled lights of Glade Spring or on the Great White Way of our Nation's Capital.

Charleston, West Virginia

1919-'20, Private Co. B.; Philomathean Literary Society—1920-'21, Sergeant Co. A.; Philomathean Literary Society; Charleston Club—1921-'22, 1st Sergeant Co. A.; Philomathean Literary Society; Declaimers' Medal; Charleston Club—1922-'23, Captain Co. A.; Secretary and Treasurer Philomathean Literary Society; Secretary and Treasurer Junior Class; Student Council; "G" Club; Charleston Club; Commissioned Officers' Club—1923-'24, Cadet Major; President Philomathean Literary Society; Secretary and Treasurer Senior Class; Student Council; "G" Club; Commissioned Officers' Club; Charleston Club.

In reward of "Dizzie's" earnest and valuable work at Greenbrier, he was awarded the highest office within the power of the school to give, that of Cadet Major, and as our highest ranking officer Wall has continued to do well in everything and has remained the same old "Dizzy" we all learned to like and admire as private, sergeant, and captain. Wall has demonstrated at Greenbrier the true school spirit and as cheer leader he has contributed very greatly to the many victories of Greenbrier's football squad. A true sport, an excellent scholar, an admirable officer, and a real man. Greenbrier bemoans the loss of Wall and realizes the difficulty of filling the gap he will leave in military, classes, and greatest of all, in the hearts of his classmates.

ROBERT M. BEAN
Landisburg, West Virginia

1920-'21, Private Co. B.; Philomathean Literary Society—1921-'22, Sergeant Co. A.; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club—1922-'23, 1st Sergeant Co. B.; Philomathean Literary Society; Secretary Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Charleston Club—1923-'24, Captain Adjutant "Staff"; Philomathean Literary Society; Commissioned Officers' Club; Charleston Club; Manager Football Team; "G" Club.

After four years at G. M. S., Bean has run the last lap of his race as a student and laid his gift of labor on the shrine of learning at Greenbrier. His scholastic work has ever gone smoothly as has proven the case in the majority of the tasks he has undertaken. Bean is a good officer and has a great deal of ability as a leader in military. Dependability is his motto and certainly the work he has done in the many activities he has taken up proves that he has lived up to his standard. The ladies hold a fatal attraction for Bean and we have many reasons to believe that he has at last been successful and has won the heart of his damsel fair, and we all wish him happiness in his affairs of love. As an officer, Bean is competent; as a classmate he is a pleasure, and as a man he is to be respected. Good bye, Bean, we know Landisburg will some day hold in you a prosperous and influential citizen.

LEWIS M. BEIDERMAN
Huntington, West Virginia

1916-'17, Private Co. C.; Lacy Literary Society; Baseball Mascot—1917-'18, Private Co. C.; Baseball Mascot; Lacy Literary Society; —1918-'19, Private Co. C.; Lacy Literary Society —1919-'20, Private Band; Lacy Literary Society—1919-'21, Private Band; Lacy Literary Society—1921-'22, Bugler Staff; Lacy Literary Society; Baseball Squad; Basket-ball Squad; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club—1922-'23, Sergeant Bugler Staff; Lacy Literary Society; Huntington Club; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Orchestra—1923-'24, First Lieutenant Band; Lacy Literary Society; Commissioned Officers' Club; Orchestra; Program Committee.

"Louie" has been here so long that none of us can remember his arrival, but we do know that when we arrived he was at the gate with a smile and outstretched hand to meet us. He has proven himself a true and willing friend to us all ever since then. And for his cheerfulness and friendliness he is admired and loved by all his class-mates. Somewhat of a "sheik" he nevertheless is constant in his affections for a certain fair seminite whom "Louie" has long wooed. We watch daily for a formal announcement of his engagement to this fair damsel of the silken hair and the cherry lips. A true friend, a social favorite and a "sheik" of the first water—we hate to lose you, "Louie," and the halls of old Greenbrier that have echoed your laughter these many years will lose one of its most cheerful voices. We know, however, that your laughter will continue to cheer others wherever you go.

DAVID S. BLEW, 2nd
Bridgeton, New Jersey

1923-'24, Private Band; BRIER PATCH Staff; All-American Club; Lacy Literary Society.

The time of "Little Boy Blue," while it has been only one year at Greenbrier, has been spent with the result of a great many accomplishments. His cheerful character has made him the valued friend of every one and he has done a great deal to win for himself the universal admiration of both faculty and student s. "Blew" is a good scholar and although typing for the BRIER PATCH claimed a great deal of his time, he acquitted himself with honors in his scholastic race. His work as "medico" for the athletic men has won for him their deepest gratitude. "Fats" was a loyal supporter of every worthy activity at Greenbrier, and in the school spirit which he displayed did much to help the Green and White pass as victors from so many athletic contests. Good bye, Blew, we shall always remember you and may you ever prosper.

WALTER S. BREWSTER
Lewisburg, West Virginia

1920-'21, Private Co. A.; Philomathean Literary Society—1921-'22, Private Co. A.; Philomathean Literary Society—1922-'23, Private Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society; Football Squad; Lewisburg Club—1923-'24, Private Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society; Football Squad; Baseball Squad; Lewisburg Club.

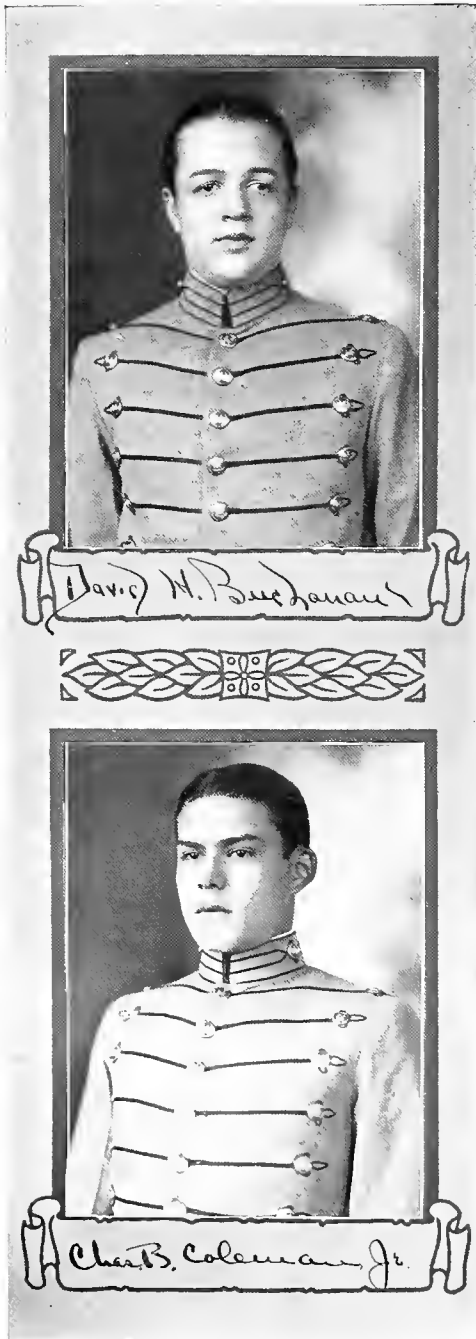

We see very little of "Boz" after school hours except during football season, but what we see then makes us all admire him and wish for more of his company. Lessons seem to be Brewster's least worry, and in mathematics especially he may be determined a shark. Women play a small part in this cadet's life and tho we are indeed sorry for them as we know his presence and conversation would make the heart of almost any sweet young lady flutter violently. But joking aside we know, respect, and like Brewster for the nearly perfect man's man that he is; and it is nearly impossible to think of the quota of town boys without the sight of "Boz." We predict a collegiate career for him, full of honors and achievements and as we bid you good bye, "Boz," we wish you all the happiness within the gift of this old world.

WILLIAM K. COWDEN
Huntington, West Virginia

1921-'22, Private Co. C.; Lacy Literary Society—1922-'23, Corporal Band; Lacy Literary Society; Huntington Club; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Band Medal—1923-'24, Lieutenant Band; Lacy Literary Society; Commissioned Officers' Club; Short Hall Club.

Huntington lost and Greenbrier gained when "Monkey" made his way into our famous halls of learning. With his winning personality and dare-devil spirit he has not failed to gain many who think of his leaving with pangs of regret. Famous for his "I care not and care not who knows that I care not" manner, he has made himself a figure of much interest among us. Although never found guilty of hard work or strenuous exercise, "Monkey" has managed by the trick of which he is sole possessor to stay well towards the top of his classes and has set an example to his fellow students that results count. For his part in social activities he will be well remembered even though no fair "flapper" has managed to "vamp" him. It is well known that Dan Cupid, that base deceiver and stealer of hearts, has placed the heart of "Monkey" in safe keeping with a dark beauty who patiently awaits at her Ninth avenue home, his arrival. Good by, old boy; may the best of luck be yours forever.

DAVID H. BUCHANAN
Marion, Virginia

1922-'23, Private Co. A.; Virginia Club; Latin Medal; Debating Team; BRIER PATCH Staff; Philomathean Literary Society—1923-'24, First Sergeant Co. D.; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Secretary Philomathean Literary Society; K. T. C. Club; Virginia Club; Tennis Club; Secretary Student Council; Editor-in-Chief 1924 BRIER PATCH; Valedictorian; Instructor Junior Literary Society; Debating Team.

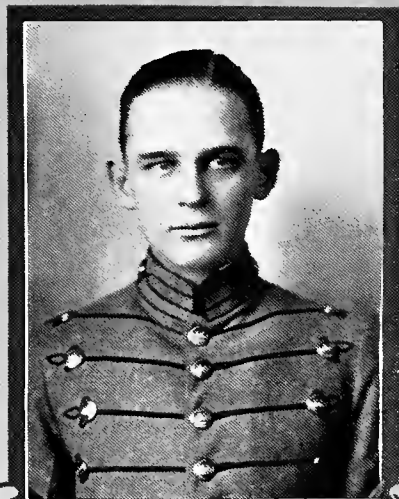

"Buck's" noble Physiognomy was first noted among the many celebrities of Greenbrier in the fall of 1922. One look into those dreamy eyes and we recognized the soul of a true artist of all things that life holds best. "Buck" has ever been a leader in his classes and is one of the few Latin "sharks" in captivity, and is to be respected as such. He takes his place among a world of men and will eventually be a leader among leaders. As a social lion he is incomparable and as to his ability as a "sheik" you have but to watch the "ogling eyes" and heavy sighs of the "flappers" as he approaches with all nonchalance and indifference that house of disastrous results of mankind—the "drug store." Undeniable in love, priceless in work, indispensable in play, we hate to lose you "Buck," but we watch for your rise in the business world with the confidence of the intimacy of school days and we will not be disappointed—good bye—good luck.

CHARLES B. COLEMAN
Pratt, West Virginia

1920-'21, Private Co. A.; Lacy Literary Society; Football Squad; Basket-ball Squad—1921-'22, Corporal Co. A.; Military Medal; Track Squad; Football Squad; Lacy Literary Society; President Sophomore Class—1922-'23, Color Sergeant; Debating Team; Charleston Club; Dramatic Club; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Varsity Track; Football Squad; "G" Club; Lacy Literary Society—1923-'24, Lieutenant Co. A.; BRIER PATCH Staff; Short Hall Club; Football Squad; Manager Track; Commissioned Officers' Club; "G" Club; Boxing Club; K. T. C. Club; Lacy Literary Society.

"Vas" is an old timer who came to us in the fall of 1920, and that stately and arresting countenance has ever been a joy at Greenbrier, especially to his many feminine friends. This wrecker of homes looks more like Valentino than the fabled Rudolph, and has more wives than the fabled Bluebeard. There will be much sorrow caused, both in Greenbrier and the Seminary, when "Vas" departs from the halls of learning forever. Through four years of arduous labor Coleman has made himself a well-rounded athlete and can run the "hundred" nearly as fast as he can win a woman's heart, which is very close to nothing flat. An ardent lover, a true friend and a brilliant classmate, we are loathe to let you leave, though we know that you go but to train yourself for a wonderful work. Good bye, "Vas," we wish you the best of luck.

James H. Gilmer

C. B. DeBarr

JAMES H. GILMER
Charlotte, North Carolina

1922-'23; Private Co. B.; Baseball Squad; Lady Literary Society—1923-'24, Sergeant Co. B.; Manager Basket-ball; Assistant Manager Football; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Lady Literary Society; All-American Club.

Hieing hither from the metropolis of Charlotte in the fall of '22, "Bobbie" entered Greenbrier to gratify his insatiable desire for learning, and no sooner had he made his appearance upon the campus than the cadets recognized in him a school-mate whose name would ring through Greenbrier's halls of fame. Although his classmates kept him under constant observation there was never reported a time that "Bobbie" was caught paying any attention to his studies. He bought a great many books from Captain "D. T.," which were never used, yet Gilmer's exam grades were always phenomenal. How do you do it, "Flute?" The Basket-ball squad showed their confidence in "Flute's" ability and their appreciation of his loyal school spirit by electing him their manager, and the students viewed a series of games this year far superior to those of any preceding year. May "Lady Luck" be your constant companion, "Bobbie," and may fortune ever smile on you.

CLARENCE B. DEBARR
Lewisburg, West Virginia

1920-'21, Private Co. A.; Philomathean Literary Society; 1921-'22, Private Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society—1922-'23, Private Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society; Lewisburg Club—1923-'24, Sergeant Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society; Lewisburg Club; Fallen Angels Club.

"And here ladies and gentlemen," as the old-fashioned circus "speeler" used to say, "we have a representative of a species seldom seen, a true rara avis." And this adjective fits Clarence amazingly well. He is one of the privileged and favored few who have successfully completed "Cicero" under Captain "Joe," and he finished with a great flourish in this year with the wanderings of Trojan Aneas. But Debarr is not limited to Latin in his scholarly ability but is "high man" in almost all his classes. Greenbrier was delighted to see Clarence return this year for work as a post-graduate, and we all wish his return next year were it possible. While not actually participating in athletics, Debarr's ear was ever at the service of any Greenbrier team and his school-spirit helped win many victories.

JAMES VOOHRAS FOYLES

Houston, Texas

1921-'22, Private Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society; Baseball Squad; Track Squad—1922-'23, Sergeant Co. B.; Philomathean Literary Society; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; BRIER PATCH Staff; Football Squad; Baseball Squad; K. T. C. Club—1923-'24, Lieutenant Co. B.; Philomathean Literary Society; Commissioned Officers' Club; Business Manager of 1924 BRIER PATCH; President All-American Club; Varsity Football; "G" Club; Baseball Squad; Program Committee.

"Jimmy" is our Lone Star from old Texas, and altho he doesn't have the appearance of teething on a shooting iron, Foyles has won the admiration of all for the man we know him to be. He made his letter in football and is a true sportsman on the gridiron as he is on any field of contest. "Jimmy" contributed a great deal toward the success of this year's BRIER PATCH, working hard and faithfully. Now kind reader, prepare for thrills. "Jim" is a confirmed ladies' man and it is true that the hearts of several fair ladies, 'cross the way, beat faster at "Jimmy's" approach and many are the dainty hands which address the multitude of mail he receives. In the three years of his sojourn with us, we have all contracted a warm friendship for Foyles and it will follow him wherever he goes, and in whatever path of life he chooses for his career we know he will be a success. Good bye, "Jim," and good luck.

WILLIAM L. CRUTCHER

Richmond, Kentucky

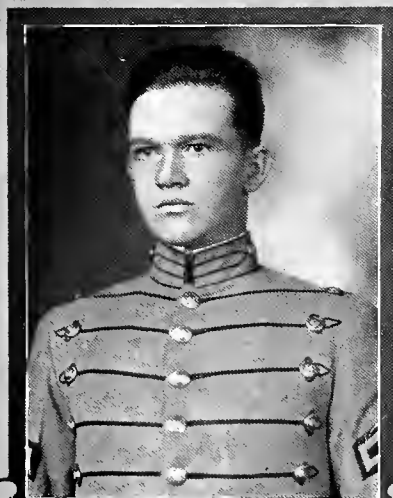

1922-'23, Private Co. C.; Lacy Literary Society; Kentucky Club; "G" Club; Varsity Football; Varsity Baseball—1923-'24, Lieutenant Co. C.; Critic Lacy Literary Society; Commissioned Officers' Club; Student Council; BRIER PATCH Staff; Vice-President Kentucky Colonels; Tennis Club; Boxing Club; "G" Club; Varsity Football.

It is with the greatest feeling of appreciation that we write of our fellow-classmate "Bill." He came to us in the fall of '22, and immediately won the fame as one of the best backfield men in Greenbrier's football history. "Bill" is one of those fellows who seem to find time for everything and is well above the average in his classwork, especially so for one who has such an interest in the feminine attractions of the day. He travels rough shod over the hearts of his many friends of the opposite sex, with never a backward glance. With utter disregard and contempt for the long string of "blighted lives" left in his wake he forges steadily onward, ever seeking more conquests. "Bill" has found a place in the hearts of all his fellow-students, a place that cannot be filled, and it is with much sorrow and regret that we see him leave, but we know that wherever he goes he will fill the hearts of all of those with whom he comes in contact in the outside world as completely as he has done here. Good bye, "Bill," may success and happiness be yours through the days of your life.

E. L. Houck

William Handley

ELMER L. HOUCK
Lewisburg, West Virginia

1920-'21, Private Co. B.—1921-'22, Corporal Co. B.—1922-'23, Corporal Co. B.; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Lewisburg Club; Penmanship Prize; Scholarship Medal—1923-'24, Sergeant Co. C.; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Lewisburg Club; Philomathean Literary Society.

In this era of mind and intellect we can think of no man who will have a higher mark as a brilliant and capable scholar than Houck. All the complicated mazes of mathematics, physics and chemistry are as plain to him as is our well worn path to the drug store corner. As is the case with all our "town boys," we see very little of Houck and wish the pleasure of his company was our's more. So little of Houck's social life is witnessed by any of the cadets that we don't know what are his views concerning the ladies, but we all feel sure that there is, somewhere in the background, some fortunate, sweet young thing who furnishes the inspiration for the brilliant results which Houck manifests in all his classes. Ever a desirable comrade, Houck will be missed next year, and talented indeed is the man who will fill his place.

WILLIAM HANDLEY
Lewisburg, West Virginia

1920-'21, Private Co. A.; Lacy Literary Society; —1921-'22, Private Co. A.; Lacy Literary Society—1922-'23, Sergeant Co. A.; Lewisburg Club; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Lacy Literary Society—1923-'24, Color Sergeant Staff; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Lewisburg Club; Lacy Literary Society.

"Bill" is a man who is mutually liked and admired by both the schools in Lewisburg. He and his Ford have proven a friend indeed to many footsore and weary cadets and he has won our everlasting gratitude for his many acts of kindness while at Greenbrier. "Bill's" disposition is very nearly flawless and his personality is one which draws friends as a magnet. Successful in his studies, victorious in his affairs d'amour and admired by all, "Bill's" departure is bemoaned and regretted by both faculty and students at Greenbrier. But it is also with a sense of pride that we view this proud son step out into the world of accomplishments with his precious sheepskin tucked under his arm. His race for this "skin we love to touch" has been full of worthy achievements and enterprise and he graduates with the good wishes of all.

Robert Hudson Jr.

Jack J. Hutton

ROBERT HUDSON
Lewisburg, West Virginia

1922-'23, Private Co. B.; Baseball Squad; Lacy Literary Society—1923-'24, Sergeant Co. C.; Lacy Literary Society; Basket-ball Squad; Baseball Squad; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Lewisburg Club.

This ruthless smasher of hearts made his advent in the life and activities of Greenbrier in the fall of 1922, and in his two short years has made for himself a place in the honors of our school which any one will find difficult to fill. While "Bob's" light is most dazzling in social events, his studies and class-room work show that he has snatched time from his swirl of outside activities to apply his active brain to the less interesting though worthier scholastic work. Ever ready to help his classmates and school fellows in work or play, Hudson has gained quite a number of fast and true friends who view his leave-taking with sorrow. "Bob" showed his sterling school spirit in the time he spent on the gridiron and gym floor, and he has developed this year in a baseball player of note. Good bye, "Bob," may friends ever come to you as they have at Greenbrier.

JACK J. HUTTON
Ashland, Kentucky

1920-'21, Private Band; Philomathean Literary Society—1921-'22, Private Co. C.; Basket-ball Squad; Philomathean Literary Society—1922-'23, Sergeant Co. B.; Lacy Literary Society; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Kentucky Club; Varsity Basket-ball; "G" Club—1923-'24, Lieutenant Co. A.; Commissioned Officers' Club; President Ashland Club; Lacy Literary Society; Varsity Basket-ball; "G" Club.

Undeniably "Jack's" departure from Greenbrier will cause a great sorrow both within these walls and in those of our sister school. Hutton is a perfect marvel upon the gym floor and one of Greenbrier's most consistent scorers. Hutton's work as a student is done with the ease and competence which characterizes his many accomplishments. "Jack's" military role as an officer is far from mediocre and his company has a deep respect and admiration for him. Kentucky has every reason to be proud of "Jack," and when he graduates, Greenbrier loses an excellent athlete, a steady scholar and a splendid man. Good bye, Jack, may happiness in both work and play follow you through your college years.

JOHN H. KISNER
Fairmont, West Virginia

1922-'23, Private Co. B.; Philomathean Literary Society—1923-'24, Corporal Co. A.; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Football squad; Tennis Club; Boxing Club; President Monongahela Club.

Coming to Greenbrier from Randolph-Macon Academy, "Hupp" entered into school life here with such a zeal, Colonel Moore decided to award his untiring efforts with the office of corporal, in which position "Hupp" speedily proved himself a God-send and an asset to Company A. But he soon evinced a distaste for all the gilt and glamour of officiation and behold another victim of the obnoxious weed enrolled in the souls of the fallen angels. But all foolishness aside, John is one of the men of whom Greenbrier is justly proud, and as he departs from us this year he leaves a gap in the life of Greenbrier which will be difficult to fill. "Hupp" claims not to have been ensnared by the wiles of any fair damsel, but we view with suspicion the numerous letters and boxes which come to him addressed in such a cute little hand. Good bye, "Hupp," old boy, we know you will uphold and enhance the glory of the class of '24, and we hate to think we have looked upon your noble visage for the last time.

BALLARD H. LUXON
Richmond, Kentucky

1921-'22, Private Co. A.; Lacy Literary Society—1922-'23, Corporal Co. C.; Lacy Literary Society; Secretary and Treasurer Kentucky Club; Fallen Angels Club; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club—1923-'24, Sergeant Co. A.; Lacy Literary Society; Secretary and Treasurer Kentucky Club; "G" Club; Varsity Football; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club.

Sad indeed is the thought of giving up the cheering influence of Ballard's presence. Whether it has been in athletics, social events, or school work Luxon is the typification of the true Kentucky gentleman. Ballard's friends are innumerable at Greenbrier and his enemies nil. Though this was his first year on the football squad Luxon did much good work on the line and made his letter with one of the best teams which ever played at Greenbrier. While he has not deserted his school duties in the chase of charm and beauty, his reputation as a ladies' man has leaked in from old Kentucky and we have a suspicion that under his cast of indifference there is hidden a familiarity with the ways of women, and it is fortunate for the hearts of our fair friends that he does not set out to conquer their affection. We wish you every happiness in life Ballard. May good luck accompany you through the days to come.

JOHN L. WARREN
Manson, North Carolina

1922-'23, Private Co. B.; Philomathean Literary Society—1923-'24, Corporal Co. C.; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Secretary All-American Club; Philomathean Literary Society.

It is an ill wind that blows good to no one and certainly the charming little zephyr which blew John L. into our curriculum was no ill wind. Warren's work while at Greenbrier has ever been worth while and his departure from the barracks to his home in town after his first semester, coupled with his graduation, has caused two sorrowful events for his many friends within his senior year. John's prowess among the fair is recognized and envied at Greenbrier and his success in that line is what may be expected after a glance at the features above and after listening to that irresistible line. While it is with a feeling of sadness that we view Warren's departure, it is also one of pride, as we know he will make for himself a name worthy of Greenbrier.

JOHN L. MORRIS
Williamson, West Virginia

1920-'21, Private Co. A.; Lacy Literary Society—1921-'22, Private Co. A.; Lacy Literary Society; Dramatic Club—1922-'23, Sergeant Co. A.; Lacy Literary Society; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Secretary Dramatic Club; Debating Team; Debaters' Medal—1923-'24, First Lieutenant Co. B.; Secretary Lacy Literary Society; BRIER PATCH Staff; Commissioned Officers' Club; School Representative to Y. M. C. A. Conference.

"J. L." like all other sheiks, rode into Greenbrier in the fall of 1920 on that noble beast the camel, with his tent in one hand and an oversupply of hair grease in the other. Thus it has been since that glorious year and his stately bearing has so become a fixture in our midst that we are loathe to give him up, but wherever he goes we know that we may expect great things of him. A "he man" among "he men." His class work has been of the great intelligence which a mind of the greatest wisdom only is capable of producing, and although we may not call him a "book worm," we feel sure, dear reader, that he has taken an unusual interest in his work. Morris' social life has not been without event as the many names of many fair ones in his lists of conquest will testify. But we think for once that the little microbe of love has bitten him and bitten hard and that Morris' true affection overcome all barriers and come to rest within the sanctuary of Stuart Hall. Good bye, "J. L." Greenbrier looks to you for results.

J. F. Montgomery

Wm. D. Price

JOHN MONTGOMERY
Lewisburg, West Virginia

1920-'21, Private Co. B; Philomathean Literary Society; Scholarship Medal—1921-'22, Corporal Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society—1922-'23, Sergeant Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Debating Team; Lewisburg Club—1923-'24, Lieutenant Co. D.; Philomathean Literary Society; Lewisburg Club; Commissioned Officers' Club.

For many years John has been one of the highest ranking men in the classes. He does his work with the ease and thoroughness of a born scholar and the marks upon his report are seldom below ninety-five. John's efforts were rewarded by the scholarship medal one year, and it was never given to a more deserving recipient. Montgomery's least trouble in life seems to be women, and at this we wonder; for it seems to us that the coldest hearted beauty could not help but succumb to the charm of his personality. But we may err and under his show of indifference John may hold a deep affection for one of our belles and if so we certainly congratulate the fortunate young lady upon the man of her choice. Montgomery is one of the few town boys who has risen to the exalted position of commissioned officer, and in this place he has acquitted himself with his usual honors.

WILLIAM PRICE
Salem, Virginia

1922-'23, Virginia Club; Philomathean Literary Society; Basket-ball Squad; Football Squad; Baseball Squad; Boxing Club; Private Co. A.—1923-'24, Assistant Cheer Leader; BRIER PATCH Staff; Tennis Club; Basket-ball Squad; Baseball Squad; Philomathean Literary Society; Virginia Club; Sergeant Co. A.

"Bunny" is blessed with a personality which has made a great many warm friends and admirers in both sexes. You only have to know Price for a few minutes and listen to his charming and entertaining conversation. Price is without peers and has few equals in literary work and oratorical ability. As a debator "Bunny" is one of the best ever seen at Greenbrier, and the literary societies will suffer the loss of a talented man when "Bunny" bids us farewell. The opposite sex figures very greatly in Price's school life and he has a prominent place in all social events in the school. "Bunny" is going to take up further scholastic work at W. & L., and if his career is as full of achievements as has been the case at Greenbrier we know that his will be a place high in the honors and love of the school. May all good luck accompany Price; good bye and good luck.

W. R. Perry

Harry S. Myles

WILLIAM R. PERRY
Charleston, West Virginia

1922-'23, Private Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society; Charleston Club—1923-'24, Private Co. C.; Philomathean Literary Society; Charleston Club.

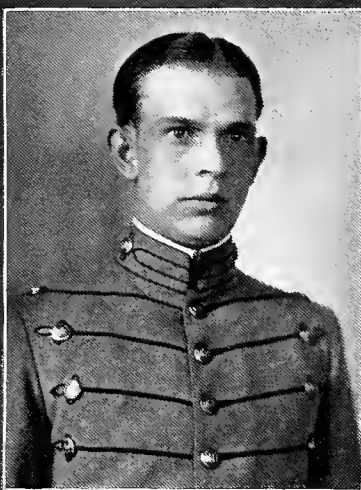

"Red" has set an example at Greenbrier for cheerfulness, helpfulness and uprightness that has won for him the universal admiration of school and town folk alike. He has been ever willing to help his classmates and has done so in the whole-hearted spirit that proves a man. There was never a worthy enterprise taken up at Greenbrier but that Perry was it's strong and able champion and helper. Perry has ever faithfully stood for the deserving things of school life in which so many of us have failed and grown discouraged. The course of study which "Red" took up this year was very nearly the most difficult in school and as he successfully completed it all, he earned the just esteem of the faculty as well as the cadets. It is with sorrow that we think of "Red's" departure and all our best wishes follow him.

HARRY S. MYLES
Lewisburg, West Virginia

1922-'23, Private Co. C.; Lacy Literary Society; Lewisburg Club; Varsity Football; "G" Club—1923-'24, Sergeant Co. C.; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Lacy Literary Society; Lewisburg Club; Varsity Football; "G" Club.

Big giant that he is, "Smiles" has fairly battered himself into the hearts of the G. M. S. boys by his awe-inspiring football playing and his rare disposition. Harry is a man universally respected and when he enters the portals of V. M. I. that institution is possessed of a gem indeed. Although this is but Myles' second year at Greenbrier, his departure is mourned by a great host of friends and admirers. While Harry is a town boy and exercises the sacred right of such, and leaves us much in the dark as to his movements once outside these walls, we know he holds a fatal attraction for the opposite sex, from the amorous glances cast in his direction by the fair ladies across the way. Friends such as you, are scarce indeed. Myles, and we are reconciled to your departure in the knowledge that Greenbrier has in you a representative of which to be proud.

The Brier Patch

J B Sanders

Dorthard Q Wall

JOHN B. SANDERS
Saltville, Virginia

1923-'24, Private Co. B.; Virginia Club; Lacy Literary Society.

In eulogizing John Barnes, we wish first to say that although he entered Greenbrier in the fall of '23, his brief stay within these halls of learning has been full of results and he leaves us for college with the warm friendship and admiration of the entire cadet corps. The faculty also hates to see Sanders leave as he has earned the name of a man of good scholastic standing. Sanders has, as is the case with most students from the Old Dominion, a decided weakness for feminine charms, and as a ladies' man he is one who truly reciprocates the amorous smiles of the much sought cupid. John Barnes has been a decided success at Greenbrier in all the lines of his endeavor, and as he goes on seeking for further knowledge—Greenbrier loses and King College gains a man who will prove himself an asset.

DOTHARD Q. WALL
Charleston, West Virginia

1919-'20, Private Co. B.—1920-'21, Private Band—1921-'22, Corporal Band; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Charleston Club—1922-'23, Sergeant Co. A.; Non-Commissioned Officers' Club; Charleston Club—1923-'24, Lieutenant Staff; Commissioned Officers' Club; Charleston Club; Philomathean Literary Society.

"Doc" has done a great deal to make Greenbrier the school we all love and in the performance of his various duties he has ever been a cheerful and helpful classmate. Wall is an excellent scholar and although we have never witnessed the burning of the midnight oil in 125, his examination grades have stirred many seniors to greater efforts. While not an athlete "Doc" has boosted the Green and White with the school-spirit for which Greenbrier is famed and which shows us the true man that Wall is. The Students' Store has flourished and grown under the management of the Wall Brothers, and the undertaking of this task is another reason for the admiration and liking which everyone has for Wall. If in after life "Doc" shows the same sterling spirit and character which he has evidenced at Greenbrier, we know of one man of whom West Virginia will some day be proud.

A dense collage of numerous black and white photographs, tilted and overlapping, depicting various scenes of people, mostly women, in different settings and outfits, likely from the mid-20th century. The photos show individuals in various poses and environments, including outdoor settings, buildings, and groups of people. The collage is a collection of many small, individual photographs, some of which are tilted at various angles, creating a dynamic and nostalgic visual effect. The subjects are primarily women, some in formal or semi-formal attire, others in more casual clothing, and some in group shots. The backgrounds vary from simple outdoor spaces to more complex architectural settings. The overall composition is a rich tapestry of personal memories captured in black and white film.

This is a large, dense collage of black and white photographs, likely from a mid-20th-century yearbook. The photos are arranged in a non-linear, overlapping fashion, creating a visual tapestry of student life. The subjects include:

- Individual Portraits: Numerous single photos of students in various poses and outfits, including formal wear, casual clothing, and athletic gear. Some students are wearing letterman-style jackets with large letters like 'G' or 'H'.
- Group Photos: Groups of students standing in lines, sitting on steps, or posing in front of buildings. Some groups appear to be sports teams or club members.
- Sports and Recreation: Photos of students playing sports, such as a basketball player in mid-air, a football player, and a group of students on a field.
- Campus and Community: Images of school buildings, a large crowd gathered on a lawn, a car, and students in various outdoor settings.
- Special Moments: Photos of students in costumes, a student in a military-style uniform, and a student sitting on a large suitcase.

The collage captures a wide range of experiences, from formal school events to candid moments of student life.

MAJ. C. B. RICHMOND
Commandant

SGT. C. C. CONYERS (U. S. A.)
Instructor Military Science

Due to ill weather, drill this year at Greenbrier was not so often and extensive as to concur with the wishes of Sergeant Conyers, yet as the practical side of tactics was not able to have its full quota of instruction, the theoretical and technical element of discipline and tactics was most fully and competently explained and demonstrated to the classes in Military Science and Execution. A better versed class in methods and completion of military actions was never turned out at Greenbrier than the men of this year. While drill was impractical, the new shooting gallery was used to teach the students to the highest degree, accuracy and perfection in musketry and marksmanship, and great strides toward this goal have been made through the able and willing instruction of Sergeant Conyers.

To the Commandant, Major Richmond, falls the credit for the neat and snappy appearance of the battalion. Major was always attentive to the many small and all important details which go to make up the morale and spirit of any military organization.

Comments on the Season

From the first practice at the football camp Coach Richmond knew he had one of the finest teams ever fighting for Greenbrier. All through the season the eleven played the very finest and strongest football, and steadily improved on hard work. The schedule for this year was one full and difficult, and it was played to a run of victories which proved it a very successful season.

The Brice Patch

STUART WORDEN, TACKLE
(Captain-Elect)

The name of "Speck" soon turned to "Horse" when he made his debut on the gridiron two years back. This name speaks for that which he was and is. No opponent can boast of having gained through or over "Speck." The team would have been helpless without his ever-ready grin and brilliant fight. We believe that the team used their heads when they elected "Speck" to lead them against Charleston next year, and luck with us we'll do it—won't we "Speck?" "Yes," comes the reply, "'till I'm done for."

HARRY WALKUP, CENTER
(Asst. Captain-Elect)

Now comes our pick for the All-American center. The spectators of any game can say that "Leps" has yet to make a bad pass, or to let an opponent through. The punishment that he took in any of the biggest games this year spells what he is willing to do for his teammates. We will not attempt to praise him according to his ability because that would be impossible. We know this—that without him "ole" Greenbrier would have fallen victim to the onslaught of the Fishburne Cadets.

KENNETH McCLUNG, QUARTERBACK
(Captain)

The cat came back and so did "Casey." The team then progressed and "Waxed strong in spirit," for it took just such a man as this to call rapid signals and to back up his generalship, to which position he was elected. Here we have a "triple threat," quarterback and captain that was ever on the jump and ran our team to perfection. "Casey" has three G's to his credit and if he deserves them in the future as he has in the past, let's all rise and drink to the lucky college that gets him.

EDWARD SMITH, HALFBACK
(Asst. Captain)

Now when the boy from the "dear old valley," came in, the school was complete. This is "Ed's" third year on the team, and here we can truthfully quote the familiar saying of Mr. Coue. He is the fleetest of foot we have had and is fearless, both on offense and defense. To our beloved hero of the gridiron there came an accident; luck was with us, however, and brought "Ed" back to us. It was then that the battallion rejoiced and was exceedingly glad. His long end runs and constant team work are some of the many things that make us like Smith. Ed, we need you and must have you back next year.

The Brier Patch

EDWARD TURLEY, END

Coal River turns out good athletes, and we believe "Tite" to be the best of these. This was the second year that he has been a tower of strength and skill any place in the line. He is a guard of par-excellence, a tackle of worthy mention and a reliable center. Too much cannot be laid on his ability to stick to either end, and next year we would advise the opponents to beware of "Tite."

ROBERT L. HORN, FULLBACK

Greenbrier received a talented man when the "Loose and Rickity" brought in "Bob." He is an ideal sportsman as was seen in the Staunton game when he took undue punishment for the good of his teammates. "Bob," was a wonderful broken field runner, remarkable "booter," and one of the best "ole" G. M. S. had. At one time we thought a bad shoulder would be the cause of losing a good man for us; regardless of that he came back strong and steady, both on offense and defense. A 45-yard drop kick against Fishburne goes to his credit. "Bob," we need you and want you back next year for the good of old Greenbrier.

BALLARD H. LUXON, GUARD

"Lucky" made his debut to the G. M. S. gridiron in great style. We have long needed just his kind and this year we got it. He fast developed into a valuable guard and distinguished himself in the hardest games of the season. His steadfast and consistent tackling and blocking made it possible for more than one back to cross our enemy's goal. "Lucky," we owe loads of our skill to you and as you graduate you leave the team with a hole in the line that will be hard to fill.

ROBERT McDOWELL, TACKLE

After a few years of hard knocks by the former first teams of Greenbrier, "Country" came in to ably fill the vacancies left by those who fought for old G. M. S. before his football star was in the ascendancy. He is a determined and spirited fighter and at all times kept his opponents on the jump. "Bobbie" charges and works hard every moment he is upon the gridiron; whether in practice or in games he always puts his best foot foremost to force back his adversaries. Next year—watch his smoke!

MARCELLUS GREEN, END

Gains around "Sal's" end by an opposing team were very, very few; and Greenbrier had in this man one who did nothing but strengthen her defense and give all he had in the territory of her opponents. Throughout the season "Sal" proved himself a steady "old head" at gridiron ethics, and as "wingman" for the cadets he showed the fight and spirit of a true sportsman. Victories will come easier if "Sal" returns and we all hope he will come back next year.

HARRY MILES, GUARD

There have been few football players at Greenbrier who have been of more absolute value to his team and school, than Miles. Harry made the guards position an almost impregnable section of the line, and his opponents soon learned to keep a healthy distance from his territory. After endeavoring to run one or two plays through or around Miles the opposing quarterback invariably directed his attack upon some other part of the line. We all envy the college that gets Harry, and we wish he could fight for old G. M. S. another year.

FORREST SEVY, HALFBACK

"Toad's" name as a pigskin warrior is at Greenbrier the characterization of grit, fight and determination. As a consistent ground gainer and line plunger Sevy has few or no peers. Sometimes interchanging with quarterback, Sevy's brilliant knowledge of football tactics led the cadets down the field to many touch-downs. His merits as a football player are without end and Greenbrier's squad will miss him sorely. With lightning speed and a series of startling reverses of the field, Sevy often thrilled the hearts of spectators, teammates and adversaries alike.

JAMES FOYLES, END

"Jimmy" is one of those few who has risen meteorically from fair to "stardom". Two years ago Foyles was merely a vocal supporter of the varsity, but in the past year has fought his way to a regular within the Greenbrier aggregation. At the position of wingman for the cadets, Foyles has always displayed a brand of football that is a credit to Greenbrier. Rarely has any man been seen possessing more grit and determination than "Jimmy". Greenbrier loses an excellent football man and supporter when Foyles graduates. Good luck and good-bye, "Jim."

The Brier Patch

ROBERT PHILLIPS, END

When "Bob" returned to Greenbrier's football squad this year, the cadet corps immediately felt more confident for a string of victories. Phillips was the hardest and surest tackler on this year's squad and few and far between were the men who eluded his vigilance and ability. "Bob" stopped the advance of his adversaries many times when Greenbrier was hard pushed, and his style of football was a joy to see played. Undoubtedly we shall hear of "Bob" higher up in football circles and Greenbrier will always be proud to say that his start was so efficiently made upon her athletic field.

HERMAN HALL, FULLBACK

"Happy," although small in stature, has shown in the last two seasons what a great amount can be accomplished on the gridiron by sheer skill and grit. The long, true punts, which "Happy" made this year, did much to help the cadets accomplish their long string of victories. Always fighting mightily and cheering his running mates, Hall earned his "G" and the admiration of all those who played with or against him. The back-field will be much strengthened by Hall's return, and we all hope to see or hear of him boosting the Green and White next year.

ELMER WOODALL, QUARTERBACK

Enter "Skinny," one of the truest sportsmen who ever took part in an athletic contest on Mathew's Field. Woodall was a fighter and ground-gainer in many games where it looked as if progress was impossible. Time and again he proved his inestimable value to his team mates and Greenbrier, when a cool head and a fierce fight were needed. "Skinny" is one of Coach Richmond's greatest hopes for next season and Greenbrier is confident that his hopes will be exceeded.

WILLIAM CRUTCHER, HALFBACK

Every one has the deepest admiration for the real football which "Bill" played this year. His runs with the ball were spectacular and his defensive work was beyond the slightest reproach. "Bill" was a man who could ever be depended upon to hit the line with irresistible momentum and a force which often carried the ball across the goal line. Good-bye, "Bill," you were indispensable to Greenbrier this year, and our squad will miss you sadly next season.

EDWARD L. SMITH, GUARD
(Captain)

Speed, "cat-like" movements, and deadly accuracy, are "Ed's" merits. He has been with our basketeers now for three years, and as the years go by he continues to improve. He was our noble Captain this year and through all the hard battles on the floor, "Ed's" voice could be heard in sharp, clear orders which were given for the good of his fellow team-mates. He has served our team wonderfully well in these past three years, and here is to wishing him back.

ROBERT L. HORN, CENTER

That big skillful frame of "Bob's" came to our aid continually this year as it did last year. He is a remarkable, all-round basketball player; more than one position can claim "Bob's" work throughout this season. His throws at the basket are all done with a skillful and deadly aim. When the ball is tossed for the "ole" game to get under way—it is then that his opponents need beware. "Bob," what do you say, old boy, let's come back.

KIT CRUTCHER, CENTER

Kit's support of his team-mates and all-round brilliancy on the gym floor was of the very best ever known at Greenbrier. Moving from the pivotal position, Kit always played a game of steady gain and tight guarding, and was ever ready to prove to Greenbrier's adversaries that one more score could be made.

The Brier Patch

DUDLEY WALKER, GUARD

In the midst of every play, and the constant enemy of the opponent's forward, "Dud" was there. Thus, his second year with the team proved to be his best, and with the aid of his nimbleness and fine floor work he readily proved that we could not do without him. His steady, consistent playing excelled in all the games. Next year he should be a basketeer supreme.

FRANK MORRISON, GUARD

"Nig's" close guarding was an outstanding feature throughout the year. He is an excellent defensive man, short shots and good guarding are his "hobbies." He is forever in the thick of the fights, and much to our opponents' sorrow, he will be back with us in the coming season.

ODELL PARKINSON, FORWARD
(Captain Elect)

"Park" is sturdy, steady and strong, as all our opponents found out this year. He is like a streak of lightning on the floor and with a deadly eye he makes some remarkable shots. He was with us last year, this year, and with no bad luck we will have him once more as a king of the gym floor.

The Brier Patch

PAUL MUNCY, FORWARD

"Sinkey" has served Greenbrier now for two years, by his supreme floor qualities. His accurate shooting, quick passing, and swift floor work made him one of Coach Oliver's most dependable men. Whenever "Sinkey" is within any distance of the basket it spells sure defeat for his opponents. We are glad to say that he will fill his able position next year.

JAMES MAGGARD, FORWARD

"Jim" is forever keeping his opponents on the jump, and here is one of our best prospects for the next season. He showed excellent form throughout the year, and could hardly be seen dashing from this place to that and then to gain his poise and give us two points. "Jim," we thank you for your work, and you have made us a valuable man.

JACK HUTTON, FORWARD

"Little but Loud." That is what we think of him. Jack is noted for his remarkable long shots, and is forever giving our boys the benefit of all his accurate throws. Jack is little, they are big. They get rough and so does Jack. "Jack, the Giant Killer." This is his second year with our boys, and much to our sorrow, his last one. A valuable man will be lost, and we realize that.

The prospects for an excellent track team are very, very good, and with the several new men joining our stars of old, we may confidently expect a team who will win its share of the laurels. As last year, we hope and expect to win out in the Central High School Meet as we did so well last year.

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

3—Football camp opens with forty candidates "out for the varsity."

7—Smith and Turley threaten to throw the two best-looking men in the river, "Vas" Coleman and Foyles stay up all night.

10—Warden misses Capt. Sands and the familiar "go forward" did-dig is not heard.

11—Camp breaks up, and football men leave for school.

12—School opens—Rats everywhere, more green and dumb than ever before.

18—Home sickness—!!! Dr. Beard prescribes salts.

23—Sir Sid arrives from France.

24—First and second team have scrimmage, score, 28-0; Varsity on top.

29—Varsity plays initial game with Richwood; defeats them 107-0—great game—Track candidates have good training.

OCTOBER

6—Greenbrier defeats Concord State 12-0.

7—Capt. Gwinn and Capt. Sands attempt to tackle Porterfield in scrimmage; both get C. C.

8—Second team goes to Richwood and defeats them 39-0.

13—Greenbrier faces defeat for the first time. New River State with a heavier team takes the big end of the score, 18-6.

20—Greenbrier avenges late defeat by trimming Clifton Forge.

26—Team leaves for Staunton.

27—Greenbrier defeats S. M. A. 19-0—fast, hard-fought game, but the "shift" proved fatal to the Cabelites.

NOVEMBER

3—Alderson and second team "split even"—score, 0-0.

10—Greenbrier defeats Fishburne 23-0, in a hard-fought game.

17—Varsity goes to Charlottesville to play Virginia Episcopal and looses a hard-fought game, 6-13. Second team reverses score with Ronceverte; defeats them, 13-6.

29—Entire Cadet Corps goes to Charleston on "special," for Thanksgiving game. Game played on muddy field. Charleston slides over one touch-down, defeating the cadets 6-0—hard-fought game.

30—Cadets entertain "Greenbrier College" with dinner. Speeches by "Sheik Lee," and "Hot Shot Johnson" prove successful.

DECEMBER

1—Photographer arrives to take pictures for the Annual. Biederman joins orchestra!!!

2—Church and quiet hour completes the day's excitement.

4—Coach Richmond calls preliminary basket-ball practice. Six letter-men report with a likely amount of promising new material.

7—Morris going to shower via front steps slips on a "chew" and wakes up at the bottom finding himself the sole interest of a group of young ladies on the campus. Oh!! you "sugar."

10—Col. Moore gets wind of rats sleeping in dress coats and vetoes order, "weep Freshmen"—"weep."

11—Cadets begin cramming for examinations. Chain gang starts working hours off. Joe McClelland leads with a shovel.

12—Senior Bible Examination. Upper classmen see the "sheep skin" flying away.

15—"Burns of the mountains" gives lecture to cadets on the "Mountains of Kentucky." Reception follows. We wonder which was enjoyed most.

16—Exams continue leaving in its wake "Flunks."

17—Everyone is touched with the holiday spirit, "beat is on the rock pile."

20—Cadets leave for home!!!!!! Servant's quarters burn and Capt. Johnson is either "Fire-Chief" or "Fire Bug"—perhaps both.

JANUARY

8—Classes—but we did not know it. A few rats come in.

9—Vigilance committee is formed by perfecting "rat system." Capt. Turley elected chairman. Ghiz proves dark horse, but looses by small number of votes.

10—Cadets just recovering from the effects of Christmas.

11—Basket-ball practice—candidates show good form—prospects good.

12—Greenbrier aggregation defeats Alderson quintet; 28-13.

14—Three fugitives (names omitted) leave on a tour. Tour ends at 2:00 a. m., in Ronceverte.

15—First Battalion inspection after holidays. Cosmoline and varnish—Yea!!!!!! Clean guns.

18—Basket-ball mass meeting. McClung, Horn, Smith give short spirited talks.

19—Varsity "swamps" Alderson collegiates in a fast game. Score, 28-24.

The Brier Patch

21—Team plays Hinton—shows best form of the season, beating them 56-16. Coach Oliver seems very pleased.

23—Team prepares for big game with Charleston Athletic Club.

24—Horn and Smith receive injuries in scrimmage.

25—Lyceum at Carnegie Hall.

26—Game with C. A. C., proves best game of the season. Greenbrier holds lead until last five minutes of play. Final score, 34-20—favor Charleston. Hard, fast game.

30—New Rat system installed with seemingly great success—"so far."

FEBRUARY

4—Major Richmond gives big talk in Chapel. Wow!!!!

10—Capt. Sands brings lost sheep from church—big snow storm. "Many fall by the way side."

11—Team leaves on three-day trip to Mt. Hope, Oak Hill and Beckley.

12—Varsity defeats Mt. Hope, 31-24.

13—Greenbrier plays Oak Hill in a barn, loses ball in the hay—game called because candle went out—lost 20-10.

14—Cadets defeat Beckley, 21-18, in a clear, hard fight. Muncy goes coasting.

15—Team returns from trip.

16—Faculty Five defeats the Ronceverte Professional aggregation to the tune of 31-18. Victory attributed to the shooting of Capt. Oliver, the expert dribbling of "Sir Sid," the fast floor work of Major Richmond, and the unpenetrable guarding of "Half Nelson Johnson." Capt. Spindler and Gilmer also show fast work on the floor.

18—"Who's who" is taken Love by popular vote.

19—K. K. K. is subdued, several nocturnal visits upon "Gabe" Edward.

20—Team plays Fishburne and Staunton. Suffer defeat in two hard-fought games at the hands of the Virginia schools.

23—Varsity regains footing by defeating A. C. I. Horn and Smith out of the game.

25—"Sem" gives the "Knave of Hearts" reception, afterwards proves large success.

26—Cadets loose hard-fought game to S. M. A., 18-13.

MARCH

1—O. D. returns to barracks with beat after a three-hour drill.

2—Entire beat including Morris goes in the staff.

10—Captain Johnson seems to be loosing weight. It seems as if some strange malady has captivated his one vivacious "self." It has been rumored that he has been wounded by cupid's arrow.

12—Practice for the "Big Minstrel." Capt. Lankford and Major Richmond are some of the celebrities in the cast.

15—Minstrel show given to a full house at Carnegie Hall. Many are made to seek cover under the fire of jest.

17—Lecture is scheduled but speaker of the evening fails to arrive. Boy, wasn't there some wailing and weeping!!!!

19—Second term Examinations begin.

21—Seminary leaves on spring holidays. G. M. S. in middle of Exams.

22—Girls at G. C. hold a Mah Jong party. Tite Turley takes the role of "Mah" and Smith portrays "Jong."

23—Baseball practice held. Many lettermen report for practice and also promising new material.

27—Varsity Baseball wins its initial game with Lewisburg Professionals. Score, 28-1—more "track practice." Coach Richmond is looking forward to a brilliant season.

30—Cadets hear the "Original peptomist" Lyceum number.

APRIL

3—Team gets in heavy practice for clash with Staunton on the 5th.

5—"Kedet" varsity defeats Staunton in a double-header. First game, 26-5; second game, 7-1. McLin and Myers, H., they can't be "hit." "Keen" plays in mid-season form.

7—"Pop" Porterfield, along with six others, go to the infirmary with the measles. Wow!!—"Boy, you sho' are lucky."

9—New golf course opens. Tournament gotten under way.

12—Annual Staff Banquet.

14—BRIER PATCH goes to press.

—Price, '24.

MCCLELLAND—"You are so thin you could close one eye and pass as a needle."

BARLOW—"You ain't thin, are you?????!!! You are so thin your Ma could feed you grape juice and use you for a thermometer."

"The moon was shining bright and clear,
I took her for a spin;
She wouldn't do what I asked her to,
So I made her walk back in."

CAPT. SPINDLER—"How long did your honeymoon last?"

CAPT. GILMER—"It was just like the rest of the moons, it faded with the last quarter."—The Mink.

HORN—"Do you rate with Alice?"

CRUTCHER—"I'm sure of it. She's going to be married next month and I'm to get a bid to the wedding."—Mink.

HALL—"Why does Biederman run around without a hat on?"

KISNER—"Ah!!!! He thinks he's hot!!!!!"—Gargoyle.

"Under the spreading chestnut tree
Stood dangerous Dan McGrew.
His brow was wet with honest sweat,
For the lady that's known as Low"!!!

"And children coming home from school
Look in at the open flue,
While back of the bar in a solo game
Sat dangerous Dan McGrew."

"It was many and many a year ago
In a kingdom by the sea,
That night on the marge of Lake Debarge
I cremated Sam McGee."

BUCHANAN—"Reed, have you washed your face?"

REED—"Nobody else's but"!!!!!!

WORDEN (to prisoner)—"Is there anything you would like to say before I press the fatal button?"

Murderer—"Yes, sir; I would like to get up and give my seat to a lady."

"In spring a young man's fancy turns to love and he turns to his Paw and asks Paw for one fifty a month to care for his daughter-in-law"!!!

SANDERS—"I asked my girl to go to church Sunday night, but her mother invited herself along—so we went to church."—Whirlwind.

"Mary had a little lamb;
Tell me, I implore,
Where did she get this little Kid—
Quoth!!!! the Raven never more.

EDD—"Darling, I have never loved but thee."

CO-ED—"Then, we must part. No amateurs for me."—Boll Weevil.

"The shades of night were falling fast
And Paul Revere stepped on the gas.
He told the people as he passed,
The British have arrived at last."

SANT—"Don't you think my apartment is much nicer than yours?"

CLAUSE—"Tut, Tut, my boy, it's bad form to match quarters."

GREGG—"My girl has a dress that she'll never wear out."

ROBB—"What's that?"

GREGG—"Her night gown."

"A famous Pope once remarked, 'Once a monk, always a monk.' Perry, however, disagrees with him, as he is educated in the higher branches."

1ST SOAK (solemnly)—"The old year has passed away."

2ND SOAK—"Yes, and we are in a helluva fix to attend the funeral."
—Mink.

ODE TO THE SHEIKS

"Here's to the Sheiks who take their stand
For purer pomade and whiter sand,
Faster camels and bigger tents,
In which to keep their impliments"????!!!!

"Burlesque shows report business much better on account of longer skirts on the streets."

CAPT. GWINN—"May I play with you, boys?"

SMOKEY—"Heck, no. We're playing Indians and you've been scalped already."

WORDEN—"Reed ought to make a good pitcher."

WALKUP—"Why so?"

WORDEN—"He can fan the batters with his ears."
